

Greater Brockport Development Corporation

2015 Measurement Report

The Greater Brockport Development Corporation (GBDC) Board of Directors continues to contemplate performance measures for determining how well it is carrying out its mission. GBDC continues to attract donations and grant funding for its various programs and is influential in the public debate on how to best enhance economic activity and implement the Village's Master Plan.